04P / 06P

HIGH PERFORMANCE PENDANT CEILING LOUDSPEAKERS

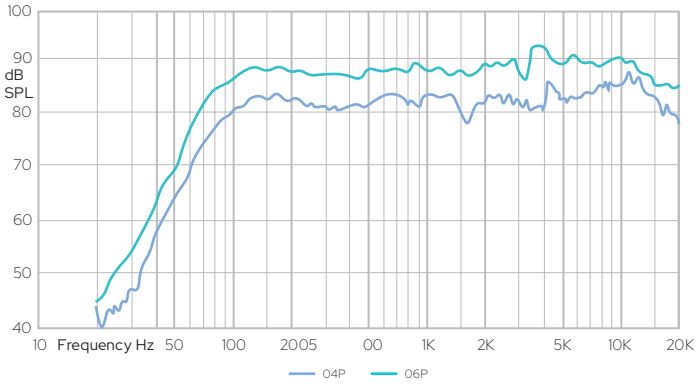

04P and 06P are pendant loudspeakers with modern appearance and impressive shound quality. The loudspeakers were designed for luxurious feel with soft shell covering coaxial driver and sound dispersion air holes. This gives 04P and 06P especially wide and uniform sound coverage, making these loudspeakers an excellent choice for large areas. Loudspeakers come with 3 m long cable with integrated steel rope and especially designed mounting plate with quick handing feature, allowing easier and faster installation process. Stock options include black and white versions with matching soft shells, but any color combo is available upon custom request.
